Circulation Facts For Advertisers

NET PAID CIRCULATION AND GROSS CIRCULATION—NET PAID CIRCULATION is the circulation of newspapers PAID FOR by purchasers, and the total of NET PAID circulation is what a newspaper sells to advertisers. When a newspaper publishes circulation figures, without specifying NET PAID, it is GROSS CIRCULATION, and represents from TEN PER CENT. TO THIRTY PER CENT. of papers printed, BUT NOT PAID FOR. In this ten to thirty per cent. is the wasteage in the press room, free copies, samples, unsold and returned copies and those variously distributed by merchant newspapers to deceive advertisers. NET PAID IS THE ONLY CIRCULATION THAT IS HONEST. THE AMERICAN'S CIRCULATION IS NET PAID—sworn statement to the U. S. Government.

Boston Evening Transcript's total net paid circulation for one week (6 days) 164,952

Boston Evening AMERICAN'S total net paid circulation for one week (6 days) 2,231,466

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN PUBLISHES AND SELLS FOR CASH EVERY DAY IN THE WEEK ON ONE EDITION ALONE (THE HOME EDITION) OVER THREE TIMES AS MANY PAPERS AS THE EVENING TRANSCRIPT'S TOTAL DAILY CIRCULATION.

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN'S NET PAID DAILY CIRCULATION IS ABOUT 15,000 MORE THAN THE TRANSCRIPT'S ENTIRE NET PAID CIRCULATION IN THIRTEEN DAYS.

The AMERICAN, in giving the above facts, is not actuated by any desire other than that business men shall know the truth about the circulation of the Boston newspapers.

The reason the Transcript is selected FIRST of all the Boston newspapers to make the above comparison is because the Transcript is the ONLY Boston newspaper besides the AMERICAN that has made public its circulation figures as required by law. The Transcript's figures were hidden away on Page 13 of the Transcript, surrounded by small advertising.

WHY? There Was a Reason!

The AMERICAN published its statement of circulation, as required by law, conspicuously on Saturday, in a four-column wide display, in large type, on Sunday, on Monday and again on Tuesday.

WHY? The AMERICAN Has Nothing to Conceal!

Every reader and every advertiser is entitled to know exactly what the circulation of the newspapers of Boston really is. And remember that the circulation, as sworn to by the AMERICAN, represents NET CASH PAID. All waste, free copies to advertisers, employees, for files, etc., have been DEDUCTED from the AMERICAN'S sworn statement OF NET PAID.

EX-GOV. DRAPER WORSER

WILSON IS TEACHER ARMED MEN DEDUCED TO FIGHT DURING ON TOLS LOVE SUIT RESCUE

James A. Gallivan was overwhelmingly elected to Congress in the Twelfth District election yesterday. When seeking the Democratic nomination in the primary, Mr. Gallivan repudiated President Wilson's surrender to Great Britain of American rights in the Panama Canal. Mr. Gallivan was nominated by a large plurality of Democratic votes. Then it became apparent that the sentiment in favor of insulating our rights to control the great canal was so strong that the great candidates, Democratic, Progressive and Republican, ALSO repudiated the President's policy of surrender.

In the Passaic district, down in New Jersey, after President Wilson had personally asked the voters to elect a Democrat, and after administration orators had done their best to convince the people that President Wilson is right in his attempt to throw away our sovereign rights in the Panama Canal at the demand of Great Britain, the voters—19,000 of them—rose and threw their votes to the Republican candidate. Where a Democrat won at the last election by a sound vote, a Republican won yesterday by two to one—and the Democrat and the Socialist ran a thrilling race, neck and neck.

WILSON POLICY WRONG.
In other words, there are as many people in that Passaic district who believe in Socialism as there are who believe in giving up American rights in the canal. Mr. Wilson had written to the Democratic candidate: "I hope sincerely that the people of your district will elect you to the House and in this way not only do you honor, but also show their judgment with regard to the present administration." THEIR JUDGMENT WITH REGARD TO THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION WAS—TWO TO ONE—THAT ITS POLICY IS WRONG!

James A. Gallivan's victory in the Twelfth Massachusetts district was a particularly impressive performance. He was one of the first in the field; and he was the FIRST to enunciate a platform against the President. He said:

"The British ambassador seems to have persuaded President Wilson to surrender our rights in the Panama Canal."

"It will cost him money to fight it and he will get nothing for it," said Mr. Shaver, C. Martin, professor of physical culture at Lasell Seminary, today, in answer to the $10,000 suit filed against her in the Suffolk Superior Court by Dr. Harris V. Dunsmore of No. 175 Huntington avenue, Bath, Bay, for alleged alienation of his wife's affections.

Dr. Dunsmore declares Mrs. Martin induced his wife, Leona M. (Ben-fer) Dunsmore, to leave him and to file in January, 1913, a bill for divorce alleging cruel and abusive treatment. The case is one of the very few alienation suits ever filed in Boston where a man has named a woman as the defendant.

CALLS SUIT JOKE.
Mrs. Martin is well known in college circles owing to the fresh air creed which she fosters as the "psychology of contentment" and the suit has created a sensation. The professor declares it is a joke and should not be treated seriously.

"There is absolutely nothing to it," she said at her home at No. 296 Moody street, Waltham, today. "I consider it simply an effort on Dr. Dunsmore's part to forestall the divorce proceedings brought by his wife. She is now in the Waltham court house with me. I know the doctor and Mrs. Dunsmore has stopped here with me. I had nothing to do in influencing her, but to bring the divorce proceedings to a halt. I have never had any unpleasant words and I considered myself, Martin, has engaged counsel and intends to fight the suit. She is a woman of some means and is well known to the public as one of the early advocates of sleeping out of doors and the founder of the psycho-physical cult."

PREMIER ASQUITH Re-elected With No Opposition
LONDON, April 8.—Premier Asquith, who resigned from the House of Commons in order to make his acceptance of the portfolio of Secretary of War legal, was today re-elected to Parliament, unopposed, from his constituency in East Fife in Scotland.

Premier Asquith has represented this district in Commons since 1885. The unexpected return of the Premier has greatly strengthened the position of the Liberal ministry, and the fight for home rule for Ireland is one more in the strong hands of the Prime Minister. Mr. Asquith will assume the leadership of the fight in person in Commons.

Threats to Impeach Pittsburgh Mayor
PITTSBURGH, April 8.—Unless he immediately purges the city council of its army of undesirable, Mayor J. O. Armstrong will be impeached. The council, by a unanimous vote, charged the Mayor with having tampered with the trial of the appointment to position of grant of immunity of men of the criminal class.

3 Bandits Killed, 2 Shot by Posse
PRINCETON, B. C., April 8.—Three of the six bandits who robbed the Bank of Canada at New Hazelton yesterday were killed and two were seriously wounded by posse, the remaining robber escaping to the hills with the booty, about $1,000.

It is estimated that 1,000 shots were exchanged, and nearly all the ammunition in the town was exhausted.

Sunday Baseball Beaten by Solons
Sunday baseball was defeated in the Legislature today by the decisive vote of 125 to 84. The billing was on motion of Representative Twomb of South Boston to have his original bill legalizing Sunday baseball substituted for the adverse report of the Committee on Legal Affairs which had voted "leave to withdraw."

FORMER GOVERNOR DRAPER, who is helpless from paralytic stroke at Greenville, S. C.

Draper's Condition Critical; Doctors Hold Consultation

GREENVILLE, S. C., April 8.—The condition of ex-Governor Draper of Massachusetts, who suffered a stroke of paralysis yesterday, showed no improvement today. The sick man passed a restless night in his apartment in the Hotel Otway, and expressed the utmost anxiety over his condition. There was a consultation of physicians shortly before noon. When asked if ex-Governor Draper would recover, none of the doctors would venture a prediction. It was said, however, that Mr. Draper was too sick to entertain thoughts of his return to his Massachusetts home at this time. The patient is helpless.

DEVIALS BY SIEGEL CASE BRIDE

NEW YORK, April 8.—Bench warrants were issued today for Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel when they failed to appear before Judge Mulvaney in General Sessions Court to plead in indictments against them. Detectives were sent to get the two men and put them in the Tombs.

The AMERICAN prints today the first authorized statement by Mrs. Diana E. (Dolly) Eddy-Brown, the former Dorchester widow, now Mrs. James S. Brown, who is named by Mrs. Henry Siegel in her suit for divorce and who is sought by District Attorney Pelletier for testimony on Siegel's financial tangle.

Mrs. Brown says with emphasis: "Mrs. Siegel's charges are absolutely unfounded."

"I know absolutely nothing of Mr. Siegel's financial affairs."

"I am perfectly willing to go before the Grand Jury in Boston."

These sentences contain the gist of sweeping denials made by the comely bride, who is now in honeymoon retreat in a Connecticut town, within easy striking distance of Providence.

June Salisbury Brown, the devoted bridegroom, is worth at least $100,000, she is said to be a considerable persecutor of her bride, he says.

"I'd like to smash somebody in the jaw."

Other developments in Siegel's financial-divorce tangle were:

COMING AS WITNESS.
Joseph Siegel, the "mysterious Back Bay witness" sought by District Attorney Pelletier, telephoned from New York to Assistant District Attorney Lavelle that he will be here Monday for the Grand Jury probe. He is Henry Siegel's nephew and was resident manager of the store in Boston.

WOMAN ENDS LIFE BY LEAP IN NIAGARA

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., April 8.—Mrs. Clarke Sanborn of Buffalo committed suicide this afternoon by leaping into Niagara River from Second Sister Island. A guard who had talked with the woman previously saw her leap into the water and attempted to rescue her. He managed to reach the body at the brink of the falls, but the woman was dead.

AGED COUPLE, FACING POVERTY, DIE TOGETHER.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Doomed by their poverty to live apart, aged Jacob Thies and his wife hanged themselves in the parlor of their tiny flat at 180 First avenue today. They were 78 years old and his wife a year younger.

Asks $10,000 for Averting Accident

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 1.—Colonel John Q. Dickinson, head of Charleston's largest banking house, is the defendant in a $10,000 damage suit, brought by the administrator of the estate of Clifford Jacobs, killed July 4 last, when the automobile in which he was riding was run over an embankment into the Kanawha River to avert a collision with a carload to which the defendant was driving.

BOARD PROBES GIRL'S BATTLE FOR STATE JOB

Members of the State Board of Charity are expected, at its next meeting, to demand of Frank W. Goodhue, superintendent of the State adult poor work, an explanation of the charges filed with the board by Miss Alice O'Connor, a Lawrence school teacher. Miss O'Connor declares she was treated discourteously by Superintendent Goodhue, and that he is trying to circumvent the civil service laws in order to deprive her of her rights to the position of supervisor of State aid to dependent mothers.

Man in Panic at Seeing Street Car

ST. PAUL, April 8.—Convicted of murder in 1893 and paroled, Gustav Merg, aged fifty, left the State prison to join his wife and three children. Five minutes later he narrowly escaped being run down by a motor vehicle. His actions attracted a crowd, and it seemed the assistance of a policeman to get him safely on to an electric car.

She Loses Divorce Because of Vote

LA CROSSE, Wis., April 8.—Lulu Kinder, Illinois adjudged, cannot get a divorce in Wisconsin. Judge Hughes in Circuit Court here so ordered, and directed that the case be dismissed. The defense proved that the plaintiff, an ex-mistress, has cast a vote at the last election at Quincy, Ill. This established her as a resident of Illinois, and therefore disqualified her to apply for and obtain a divorce in this State.

Mrs. Curtis Wins Suit Over Dress

Mrs. Margaret V. Curtis, wife of former Mayor Edwin T. Curtis of No. 121 Bay State road, has won the suit for $115, brought against her by Mrs. Mary E. Flavin, a dressmaker, at No. 241 Boylston street, to recover for a dress Mrs. Curtis claimed did not fit her.

Hurt in Fall Off Engine.

Owen Marley, forty, of No. 41 Franklin street, Somerville, was taken to the Relief Hospital today suffering from a broken arm and other injuries received by falling from a shifting engine in the yard of the Boston & Maine road near Sullivan square. His condition is critical.

Girl Trapped in Hotel Elevator Aids Rescuers

After directing the efforts of the firemen for an hour in their attempt to release her, Valeriet Alkenier, nineteen, of No. 3 Morton street, was taken to the Relief Hospital, early today, after being caught in an elevator at the Hotel Essex. She was suffering from a broken left leg and had a narrow escape from death.

EXHIBIT ON SHOW SLAVERY IN SWEATSHOPS

The Consumers' League of Boston is considering bringing here the remarkable exhibit on show in New York in an anti-sweatshop campaign. Three articles made in sweatshops are displayed, with the price paid the worker, and the sale price marked. The curator of the exhibition there explained to a group of Boston women who saw the exhibit:
